

The David Jones Teacher Mentoring Program

2-Day Seminar: Friday and Saturday, January 7th and 8th, 2011

City College-Shepard Hall Recital Hall
140 St. and Convent Ave.
New York, NY

The David Jones Teacher Mentoring Program is a seminar format for teachers and singers designed. The David Jones Teacher Mentoring program was established in London in 2008 to offer teachers and singers information regarding the Swedish-Italian and Italian Singing Schools. The purpose of the seminar series is to offer teachers the opportunity to observe technical teaching in a public setting, offering information based on Old World teaching principles.

This particular event will cover such subject matter as

- 1. Working with the menopausal voice*
- 2. Teaching tenor voices*
- 3. Teaching male voice upper passaggio*
- 4. Discovering the voce cuperto*
- 5. Lamperti exercises unpublished*
- 6. How to carefully define vocal fach.*

For seat reservation information, or to be placed on the mailing list, email Tamara Haskin at Tkhaskin@aol.com

Seminar Tuition Fee: $250